“Feet, what do I need them for If I have wings to fly.”

- Frida Kahlo

Seeking artists of all abilities to participate in our 7th Annual Frida Kahlo Exhibit. We welcome student work, emerging artists as well as established artists. We are seeking artwork based on, or inspired by the life, and work of Frida Kahlo.

All mediums of art are welcome, including prints of originals. Work must be framed or ready to hang, with a wire or suitable hanging device. Pieces must be suitable for a family friendly, all age environment. We reserve the right to reject any art, for any reason. Show is being curated by Santiago Jaramillo and Crystal O'Brien.

- Entry fee is $5 per piece or 3 pieces for $12
- 25% commission will be retained from the sale of artwork
- We would like the art to be for sale, if not please provide prints of the original piece.
- Vendor space available outdoors for the opening for $35 (details to follow). Inquiries to crystal@bucuwest.com
- Event is Saturday, August 10th from 3:00 PM - 8:00 PM
- More details about the opening to follow soon. Our space is currently under construction and we will know more as the building progresses. We will keep you updated.
